

The Gladwyn Lecture 2013

Empowering Entrepreneurs: What opportunities? What enterprise?

Professor Asha Kanwar

President, Commonwealth of Learning, Vancouver, Canada.

Tuesday, 10 December 2013, 17.30 to 19.00

House of Lords, Committee Room 2A, followed by a Reception in the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association rooms in Westminster Hall.

APPLICATION

It is essential that you complete a clearly written application form to register for this event in order to receive an invitation. Entry to the House of Lords will be on presentation of the invitation.

Places are limited and will be reserved on a first come-first served basis.

Please reserve me a place at the CEC Gladwyn Lecture 10th December 2013

Name & Postal Address

Email

Telephone

Organisation/other affiliation (High Commission, Government, University, etc)

I am / am not a CEC member (delete as appropriate)

Send your completed application form to Chandra Dhupelia

(i) by email at chandradhupelia@gmail.com or (ii) by post at 64, Avenue Road, London, N6 5DR.

SUPPORT FOR CEC

Attendance at the lecture is free of charge, but an event and reception like this are relatively costly to organize. We would be grateful to receive contributions towards our expenses and suggest a voluntary donation of up to £20. Donations can be made either by debit or credit card through the CEC PayPal account (<http://www.cecomm.org.uk/>), or else by cheque, payable to Council for Education in the Commonwealth and sent in advance of the meeting to Chandra Dhupelia at 64, Avenue Road, London, N6 5DR.

Please tell us below if you make a donation, so that we can confirm receipt.

I have made a voluntary donation to CEC via the CEC PayPal account

I have made a voluntary donation to CEC by cheque

If you have any reservation queries, contact Chandra Dhupelia, as above.

For programme enquiries, contact the Convenor Neil Kemp: neil.kemp@nkeducation.com or phone: 01273 475316